

STATE OF ALABAMA
DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND INDUSTRIES

John McMillan
Commissioner

July 28, 2011

Dear Republican Voters of Mississippi:

You will have a unique opportunity this Tuesday, August 2, to vote for someone who will work tirelessly for the people of Mississippi to ensure the prosperity of agriculture and agribusiness in your fine state.

That person is Cindy Hyde-Smith, Republican candidate for Commissioner of Agriculture & Commerce.

Her legislative experience, especially as Chair of the Senate Agriculture Committee, reflects a deep understanding of issues concerning farmers and their families. She also knows the meaning of public service and why, in these tough economic times, we need a person with her depth of knowledge in agriculture.

As Commissioner of the Alabama Department of Agriculture & Industries, I look forward to working with Cindy Hyde-Smith as we forge a working group of state agriculture commissioners in the Southeast to promote the best interests of farming and agribusiness.

From all reports, Cindy's campaign and her candidacy have all the signs of a winner. I wish her well and ask you to vote for her in Tuesday's Republican Primary.

Sincerely,

John McMillan,
Commissioner
Alabama Department of Agriculture & Industries
